DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. This application appears to be a continuation of Application No. 10/130,720, filed 05/23/2002, now US Patent 6,771,334. A later application for a distinct or independent invention, carved out of a pending application and disclosing and claiming only subject matter disclosed in an earlier or parent application is known as a divisional application or "division." The divisional application should set forth the portion of the earlier disclosure that is germane to the invention as claimed in the divisional application.

Reasons for Allowance

2. Claims 1-16, 22-27 and 29 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

None of prior art disclose, singly or combined, a transflective liquid crystal display device comprising pixel electrodes that included an electrode for reflective display and an electrode for transmissive display, a counter electrode, wherein liquid crystal molecules at a surface of the electrode for reflective display are aligned in a same direction as liquid crystal molecules above the electrode for transmissive display that are in a same plane as the liquid crystal molecules above the electrode for reflective display, the plane being parallel to principal surfaces of the substrates; and wherein a relation between  $d_{ra}$  and  $p_{ra}$  and  $d_{rb}$  and  $p_{rb}$  is expressed by the following equation:

$$d_{ra} / p_{ra} = d_{rb} / p_{rb}$$

Art Unit: 2871

not located,  $\text{pra}$  is the twist angle of the liquid crystal molecules,  $\text{drb}$  is the distance of the liquid crystal molecules above the electrode for transmissive display from the surface of the substrate where the molecules make contact and the pixel electrodes are not located, and  $\text{prb}$  is the twist angle of the liquid crystal molecules as set forth in claims 1, 13, 22-24, 27 and 29.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
